Register On Line:

- as an individual or team at www.puzzlethon.org and set up your online fundraising page.
- Write an email to your friends, family and colleagues that tells your personal story and invites support.
- Link all your emails to your page using your signature tag.
- Use social media like Facebook and Twitter to let your friends know that you are fund raising
- Hand out our action cards to help supporters find your page

Sales-based fund raising: The classic lemonade stand can easily become a puzzle piece shaped cookie stand!

- Tag, bake, plant sale
- Memberships or subscriptions
- Jewelry

Opportunities to partner in fundraising make your efforts produce twice the results when you work with these resources:

- Roses for Autism (www.rosesforautism.com) provides employment training for adults on the autism spectrum
- Serenity Shield (www.serenityshield.com) provides emergency document accessibility in case of accident or missing persons
- Real Jewelry to Make a Real Difference (www.asconn.org) hand crafted autism awareness puzzle piece jewelry collection

Be sure to involve business people you know in helping to publicize or generate donations for your efforts!

Activity-based fund raising: Involve your civic club, workplace, or local sports team to join you in a challenge!

- Sports like bowling, swimming, hiking, running, biking
- Karaoke / talent, art, or crafts shows
- Articles or essays about autism for newsletters

Service-based: You may easily generate more customers when you pledge a percentage of your service fees!

- Babysitting
- Car Wash
- Yard work

Gift-based fund raising:

- Holiday / birthday / anniversary parties
- Wedding
- Bar/Bat Mitzvah
